ENCAMPMENT OF BAPTISTS ON TOMORROW

Clear Creek Springs to Be Scene of Big Meeting.

STRATON TO SPEAK

Visitors From All Over State
Will Be Present—Prominent Speakers on the Program.

Baptists from all over Kentucky are arriving at Clear Creek Springs for the two weeks' Baptist Encampment, which opens tomorrow morning. Indications are that the event will be a big success, local Baptists predicting that at least 1,000 people will attend the meetings.

The road leading from the Middlesboro-Pikeville pike was improved by volunteer workers from Middlesboro and Pikeville Friday and is reported to be in excellent condition.

As a convenience to women who do not wish to spend the day at the encampment, the program for their part of the work will be each morning for the entire two weeks. This will enable them to leave Middlesboro on the evening train at 7:30 in the morning and return at 2:15 o'clock in the afternoon.

Lunch will be served on the ground each day. For those seeking recreation, there will be swimming, fishing, boating and tennis each afternoon. The meetings will be held in a large tent on the athletic field. Dormitories and cabins are available for those who wish to remain at the grounds while Middlesboro is not represented on the program. A large number of Baptists are planning to attend the events daily.

Practically all the state officers of the various Baptist organizations will be present and appear on the program. The church, Sunday school, B. Y. P. U., and, in fact, every phase of church work, will be represented on the program.

The following list of speakers is announced by the Rev. L. C. Kelly, of Pikeville.

Dr. John Roach Stratton, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, New York City.

Dr. W. O. Cuyler, professor of comparative religion and missions, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, of Louisville, Ky.

Dr. C. M. Thompson, corresponding secretary, Kentucky State Board of Missions.

Dr. V. J. Masters, editor of Western Recorder.

W. S. Farmer, secretary of Laymen of Kentucky.

Robert J. Dally, superintendent, Baptist Sanitarium, Houston, Texas.

Rev. G. W. Ellers, Kentucky Evangelist, Worster.

Rev. J. R. Black, pastor of Baptist Church, Harlan, Ky.

Rev. W. A. Gardner, Kentucky Sunday School secretary.

E. L. Strickland, organized class secretary, Sunday School Board.

Dr. R. J. Pirkey, pastor of Broadway Baptist church, Louisville, Ky.

Dr. W. L. Walker, pastor of First Baptist church, Maysville, Ohio.

G. W. Jones, rural Sunday School worker of Kentucky.

Mrs. W. A. Gardner, elementary Sunday School secretary of Kentucky.

Mrs. J. R. Black, junior department worker, Harlan, Ky.

Lynne P. Hatley, Kentucky B. Y. P. U. Secretary.

Rev. E. S. Gaines, pastor of First Baptist church, Paris, Ky.

Miss Ruth Sampson, B. Y. P. U. worker, Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Amy Perry, B. Y. P. U. worker, stamping Ground, Ky.

Mrs. Janie Lee Rose, Kentucky W. M. F. secretary.

Miss Jeanie Bright, Kentucky young people's leader.

Mrs. E. L. Roberts, president, Kentucky W. M. F.

Special mention cannot be made of all these workers. But in the person of Dr. John Roach Stratton, of New York, the management has been unusually fortunate. He is a southerner who has created a sensation in the great city by his bold and fearless stand for fundamental truth and against all forms of lawlessness and modernism. He has recently had a series of twelve debates with Dr. Puter, a Unitarian Modernist, and eight of twelve decisions were given to Dr. Stratton. He will speak each night.

STATE ROAD WORK BIDS ARE OPENED

Highway Commissioners Open Bids
For Important Road Work In the State.

By Associated Press.

FIRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 4.—Bids for 125 miles of highway were opened by Joe S. Boggs, state engineer, today. The letting includes bridge work and paving on the Midland Trail, Western Dixie Highway and Eastern Dixie Highway.

Repairs will be made on the Brooklyn Bridge, Jessamine county; on the bridge over the Cumberland River in Bell county on the Barboursville Pineville road, he said.

There will be construction work also on three bridges in Pike County over Levisa Fork, on the Whitesburg road; and a bridge on the Pikeville-Preston road, he said.

The following counties were affected by today's bids:

Carter—78 425 miles; Grayson to Olive Hill, Midland Trail.

Daviess—2 392 miles east from Owensboro on the Ohio River road.

Harlan—3 167 miles on the Pineville road, gravel and drain contracts.

Leitcher—2 260 miles, Jenkins to Pound Gap project into Virginia.

Pulaski—16 558 miles, Somerset to the McCreary county line.

Bath—7 625 miles of gravel or macadam on the Carlisle Pike.

Caldwell—14 432 miles, Princeton to the Crittenden County line.

Muhlenberg—10 300 miles, Central City to the McLean County line; 8 309 miles, Greenville to the Hopkins County line.

Meade County—11 225 miles of gravel.

Daviess—16 miles, Panther to Ohio River gravel; from South Panther Creek to the Ohio County line on the Hartford road.

Shelby County—4 5 miles of macadam, Lawrenceburg road; six miles, macadam, Taylorsville road.

Scott—3 2 miles of macadam, Oxford to the Harrison county line.

Warren—8 5 miles of macadam, south from the Edmonson county line, Western Dixie Highway.

The surface treatment bids covered 32 miles in Jessamine county on the Lexington-Harrodsburg road and seven miles in Mason county on the Lexington pike.

Other national officers include Mrs. Kay G. Tallquist Little Rock, executive and educational secretary; J. O. Blakeney, judge advocate; Mrs. John Francis Weinmann, Little Rock, treasurer, and Mrs. Harry Howard Foster, Little Rock, chaplain.

Besides the general council or national executive body, it is planned to establish state and local councils for the purpose of promoting and co-ordinating patriotic activities and to promote humanity, a proper reverence for the dead; Americanism in the broadest sense; to encourage proper observance of all patriotic days and to stimulate and teach the highest forms of American citizenship.

The constitution provides that "all veterans organizations and patriotic societies are eligible to active membership in the American Veteran and Allied Patriotic Organization by subscribing to rules and regulations set forth in the constitution, and by loyal adherence to its tenets, which no wise limit or circumscribe the individual activities of the various constituents."

It is provided further that "any organization which is performing constructive community service may, upon application, be admitted to associate membership in general, state or local councils, their rights in convention to be restricted to representation without vote."

Those indicted included the vice-president, general manager, organizer, sales manager and several salesmen, according to Assistant United States Attorney McCoy. One of the victims of the alleged fraudulent act is Mr. Moroso himself who is alleged to have been stripped of all his properties valued at $5,000,000.

INDUSTRY IS WAKING UP

The good news comes this morning that the Martin-Page Co. will go on full time and with a full force within the next few days. Along the same line the Big Ben company are readying contracts in sufficient amount to warrant their going on full time within the next few weeks and that with a full force. On the top of all this comes the news that the coal industry is showing signs of a break in the buyers strike and that the placing of orders with local mines will only be a question of a short time.

All this means more business in the community and more cash coming into the channels of local business. It is no more than was expected with the general quickening of business pulse all over the country. How much this revival would influence our business conditions if we had twenty industries instead of the few we have?

For twenty years or more Middlesboro has been going through these business depressions that go and come with the tide of the coal industry. If this year has not taught its lesson it is hard to conceive a condition in business that would so teach. "Old timers" in the past few weeks have reported that the business depression of the past spring and summer have been the worst that the city has ever seen. There is not a family in town that has not been vitally affected by the business conditions of the past few months. And it will come again, if we do not set up a barrier against it.

Unorganized community effort will not bring industries to this city; will not make this place a civic center such as it deserves; will not make Lincoln Memorial Park an assured fact. A half dozen organizations working without a combined effort will not make for community growth.

In the Merchant's Association we have the nucleus of a chamber of commerce. Among its members are men willing to give time and money towards furthering the best interest of the city. Time and time again it has been a vital force in the promotion of new ideas. A canvass of the city during the week just passed has shown that the numbers of this organization could be increased two-fold. Further it has been shown that outside of the association there is a large number of citizens that would join with the business interests of the city in promoting a live functioning chamber of commerce.

THE WAR DEPARTMENT AND THE "DEATH RAY"

H. Grindell Mathews, the British inventor of the "death ray" is a visitor in this country. While disclaiming much of the sensational matter which has been sent broadcast throughout the world, he, however, claims that the invention will be of great scientific and military value.

On the other hand war department officials announce that they are skeptical about the invention and that no steps have been taken to investigate the matter. General Pershing is quoted as not being impressed with the reports about the invention.

It is to be remembered that Jay Gould pulled the first telephone out of his office and said it was and would never be "a toy." About every great invention has been treated the same way. Twenty years ago, probably the war department would not have been seriously impressed with the radio as a possibility to war.

It is also to be remembered that the larger part of the ordnance used in Europe by the American forces was a French make. Also that our government powder making during the war under the supervision of the war department, was a farce. Also that millions of dollars of value were ordered, that were never used and would not have been used if the war had gone on for an indefinite period. The Wilson administration accepted the war department as authority on these munitions and placed the contracts accordingly.

It would seem that the war department at present is giving the larger part of its time toward furthering movement towards a national training day modeled after that of a hundred years ago. It is to be hoped that it will not carry on to the extent of ordering a million or two of that inch and a few thousand better ones of smooth bore muzzle loading artillery.

LIFE

I know some lonely houses off the road.
A robber'd like the look of,
Wooden barred,
And windows hanging low,
Inviting to
A portico
Where two could creep:
One hand the tools,
The other peep
To make sure all's asleep.
Old-fashioned eyes,
Not easy to surprise!

How orderly the kitchen'd look by night,
With just a clock—
But they could gag the tick,
And mice won't bark;
And so the walls won't tell,
None will.

A pair of spectacles ajar just stir
An alabamas awar
Was it the mat wukker,
Or a nervous start?
The moon slides down the star
To see who's there.

There's plunder where
Tankard, or spoon,
Earring, or stone,
A watch, some an' dent bowl
To match the grandmama,
Staid sleeping there.

Day rattles, too,
Stealth's slow;
The sun has got us far

As the third tomorrow
Screams, "Whoo-hoo!"
"Who's there?"
And echoes, trails away
Sneer, "Who?"
While the old couple
Just usk,
There, that's the life
Left the door agin!

Epworth League
Social Function

As a finale to the membership contest of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church, South, won by the "lower-level" group, there will be a progressive social beginning at the church at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night. All the members are urged to attend and are asked to wear their old clothes as the social will be in the nature of an outing. Many delightful surprises have been planned for the event and the social promises to be one of the most unique and enjoyable ever had here. The membership campaign, the four groups of which were represented by touring cars, was an entire success, over eighty members being added to the organization.

"ROUTE A" IS IN GOOD SHAPE NOW

1,500 Northbound Tourist Cars Went Through Cabin During the Month of June.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 4.—Dixie Route A between Cincinnati and Asheville, is in excellent condition, and six weeks ago I drove from the Denton store in Cincinnati through Lexington, Cumberland Gap and Knoxville to Asheville in two days. I have since that time directed personally over twenty cars from Asheville to Lexington and Cincinnati," declared R. W. Shumhardt, advertising for the Dixie department store of Denton & Co. in Asheville to Manager N. Bushner of the Asheville Western Carolina Motor club.

The Louisville Automobile club, Eugene Stump, manager, in a communication to the Asheville Motor club states, "A party last night reported they had met the run from Asheville to Louisville in two days, which we think is excellent driving and a good recommendation for the road. We are having considerable travel now over the Asheville-Louisville route.

Wade H. Canfield, chairman of the Dixie Route A committee at Corbin, kept check of northbound tourist cars from other states and reported an average of 150 cars a day or 4,500 tourist cars, northbound, for June.

This means that Dixie Route A has already begun to yield dividends to carmen who were through here Sunday on their way to Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hyder of Poor Fork spent the weekend with Mrs. Hyder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gofforth.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hall and family of Cincinnati, who have been visiting here, returned home yesterday.
